Re: House and Pet Sitting Reference

When Kevin and Valerie responded to our house sitting listing, we felt that they would be a good fit for us. We have used house sitters before so we have high expectations. It turned out that they would be in town about 6 weeks prior to our trip so we arranged for them to come meet us and our dog. We all hit it off and felt very comfortable with our choice.

When we returned from our 10 day trip, we found that our home and our dog had been very well cared for. They kept everything very neat and tidy and our dog was very happy and healthy. They took him out for walks every day and even took him along with them on a couple of local day trips.

On the whole we are very pleased with our choice of Kevin and Valerie and hope they can house sit for us in the future. We'll also recommend them to our friends.

Sincerely,
